

Wild Idaho! 2022

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Sawtooth National Recreation Area

Friday, May 13

4:00 pm	Check in — Drop by the Velvet Falls Dance Hall at the Mountain Village to collect your name tag, get your room assignment if necessary, and sign up for Saturday field trips
5:45–6:00	Welcome, Justin Hayes, Executive Director
6:00–7:30	Dinner
7:30–8:00	ICL year-in-review/annual business meeting — Justin Hayes, Executive Director and Rebecca Patton, ICL Board Chair
8:00–8:15	Changing Landscapes, Resilient People — Daniel Stone, Shoshone-Bannock Tribes
8:15–9:00	Sawtooth National Recreation Area's 50th anniversary slideshow — Ed Cannady, SNRA backcountry manager (retired)

Saturday, May 14

7:30–8:45	Breakfast
8:45–9:00	Break — Arrange room for morning presentations
9:00–9:05	Morning welcome — Marie Kellner, ICL Conservation Programs Director
9:05–10:00	Program updates on ICL's four major campaigns: combating climate change, protecting public lands, restoring the health of the Snake River, and saving salmon and steelhead — Dr. Aly Bean, Randy Fox, Jonathan Oppenheimer and Mitch Cutter. Facilitated by Marie Kellner
10:00–10:45	Moving mountains: Salmon, orcas and tribal justice – A path towards breaching? — Rocky Barker, Idaho Statesman (retired)
10:45–11:00	Break
11:00–11:45	Introducing ICL's new North Idaho lakes program — Brad Smith, North Idaho Director
11:45–12:30	Keynote: Insights from four decades of Outdoor Idaho — Bruce Reichert, Idaho Public Television (retired)
12:30	Lunch — Pick up your lunch to go and grab your backpack (with warm clothes and rain gear) from your cabin

1:00–4:30	Field trips — Sign up on the bulletin board before lunch and note the meeting location. Historical walking tour of Stanley, Gary Gadwa, Sawtooth Interpretive and Historical Association Sawtooth Valley issues tour (cell tower, Stanley-Redfish trail &amp; airstrip, and Salmon River diversions), Josh Johnson, ICL Conservation Associate and Marie Kellner, ICL Conservation Programs Director Petit Lake Sockeye Salmon Restoration project, Kurt Tardy, Shoshone-Bannock Tribes Stanley Lake photography hike, Ed Cannady, SNRA backcountry manager (retired)
5:30–6:30	Festive social hour
6:30–8:00	Dinner and awards
8:00	Live auction — A great time, followed by festivities

Sunday, May 15

7:30–8:40	Breakfast and auction checkout
8:40–8:50	Break — Arrange room for morning presentations
8:50–9:00	Morning welcome — Justin Hayes, Executive Director
9:00–9:45	The opportunities and challenges of a renewable energy future. Panel Discussion with Dr. Claudio Berti, Director & State Geologist, Idaho Geological Survey, Dr. Margrit von Braun and Dr. Ian von Lindern, TerraGraphics International Foundation, and Josh Johnson, ICL Senior Conservation Associate. Led by Dr. Aly Bean, ICL Climate Campaign Coordinator
9:45–10:15	Youth Salmon Protectors — Shiva Rajbhandari, ICL Youth Engagement Coordinator, and Lizzy Duke-Moe, Youth Salmon Protector member
10:15–10:25	Break
10:25–11:10	Keynote: Perspectives on the Sawtooths, Salmon restoration, Snake River Adjudication, the current state of politics and more — Hon. Jim Jones, former Idaho Attorney General and Chief Justice of the Idaho Supreme Court
11:10–11:55	Sawtooth National Recreation Area at 50: Past, present and future. Panel Discussion with Tim Cron, Stanley City Council member, Kirk Flannigan, SNRA Manager, and Terry Clark, Sawtooth Interpretive and Historical Association board member. Led by Stevie Gawryluk, ICL Central Idaho Engagement Assistant
11:55–12:00	Thanks and farewell — Justin Hayes, ICL Executive Director
12:00	Lunch and then a safe trip home!